as about how to quench thirst. Today, those ideas are turned upside down. The Samaritan woman operates, initially, on the TV commercial level. She asks Jesus for the flowing water so that she will not have to keep coming to the well. Jesus then talks about what real thirst is, and how He, and He alone, can quench that thirst. Lent calls us to find those places deep within ourselves where we thirst. In our thirst, as did the Israelites, we cry out to God asking for springs of living water. Deep down we know that only the Lord can satisfy these thirsts.

Thirst

Each time today's Gospel story is read, I can't help but think of the many television commercials I've seen depicting perspiring athletes lifting a beverage to their lips while the scorching sun beats down on them. Our culture has definite ide-

We're Almost There!

We're almost there! Let's wipe out our debt before we begin the construction of our Parish Hall. We started out at $12,378,269.34 for the cost and to date we have raised $12,142,985.71. We now only owe $235,283.63.

Life of Stewardship

Today's readings on this third Sunday of Lent present us with the theme of "thirst" and show us that a stewardship way of life can both satisfy our spiritual thirst for Christ and help us to satisfy Christ's thirst for souls.

Our first reading, from the book of Exodus, begins with the words, "In their thirst for water, the people grumbled against Moses." What little faith and lack of trust they show after all God has done to free them from slavery. But Moses cried out to God for help, and sure enough God provided generously to satisfy thirst. He continues to provide generously for us these many centuries later.

Our Gospel passage from John recounts the life-changing encounter Christ has with the Samaritan woman at the well beginning with His words to her, "Give me a drink." Then, He adds, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."

Christ is speaking the very same words to us today. These two verses encapsulate the call to stewardship. Christ asks us to "give him a drink" by sharing what we have with Him and with others for His sake. Yet, it is Christ Himself who provides the water — the living water that is His grace.

God has chosen to include us in His plan for bringing all people to salvation through Him. We live out our part in His plan through a stewardship way of life. This Lent, let us resolve to respond to His call with passion and commitment. Let us do our part to quench His thirst.

Faith Formation

Faith Formation—Grades K-5

While I was off island one Sunday recently, Lynne Hartz taught my third-grade class all about Ash Wednesday and the Lenten season. The children had fun making Resurrection Eggs. Each of the plastic eggs contained a symbol of the Resurrection: a nail, coins, etc. The twelfth egg was empty. Can you figure out why? The empty tomb, of course!

Our teachers appreciate Lynne and our other substitutes, Joanne Agdeppa and Nicole Tobias, for stepping in for us when we are unable to teach. Our subs help us to make sure your children continue to receive quality instruction when

Cold & Flu Season— Coronavirus Disease 2019. Steps to prevent illness

The Virus is spread mainly from person to person, between people who have contact with one another and through respiratory droplets produced when infected person coughs or sneezes.

Protect yourself by:

- 1) Washing your hands with soap and water for 20 seconds.
- 2) Avoid touching eyes, nose and mouth.
- 3) Avoid close contact with people who are sick.
- 4) Stay at home if you are sick and get in touch with your Doctor.
- 5) Cover your mouth and nose with tissue when coughing or sneezing or use the inside of your elbow.
- 6) Throw your tissues in the trash.

This information is taken from CDC.

Changes at St. Michael's due to the cold and flu season

- 1) We are suspending distribution of the Precious Blood to the congregation until further notice.
- 2) Faithful are encouraged to receive communion in the hands.
- 3) If you still want communion on the tongue, please only go to the Priest.
- 4) Please do not hold hands during reciting of the Our Father.
- 5) For the Sign of Peace, smile or simply say Peace be with you, without shaking hands.
- 6) If you are ill, remain at home.

off his feet by an encounter with the Risen Lord. After stumbling, blind, to a Christian household, he emerged days later, baptized and clear-sighted, as Paul. Enlightened, he begins a life so disconnected with his former ways that it seems to require a new name.

The custom of acquiring a new name at baptism is thus very old, and is a deeper question than “naming the baby”; it is, rather, one of a break with the past and a place in the community. The first Christians mostly kept their pagan names, and therefore blended in with their neighbors. Eventually, some people began to name their children after Christian virtues or feasts, like “Ephiphanius” for a child born on Epiphany, or “Fides” for faith. Later, the names of beloved martyrs or saints began to take hold, as older converts exchanged their birth names for the names of admired saints. Today, catechumens may still choose to assume a “Christian name” before baptism, and parents are still asked to be mindful of our tradition as they give a name to a child.

Saint Joseph, Husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary

March 19

The spouse of Mary the mother of Jesus and the legal father of Jesus according to Jewish law, Joseph is a model of humility and obedience to God’s will. He followed God’s instructions, given by angels in dreams, and took the pregnant Mary into his home as his wife, protected her and Jesus at the child’s birth in Bethlehem through the family’s sojourn in Egypt, and provided for them as a carpenter in Nazareth. He is the patron saint of carpenters, the dying, and workers.

“St Joseph persevered in this mission with fidelity and love. The Church, therefore, offers him to us as an exceptional model of service to Christ and to his mysterious plan of salvation. And she calls upon him as the special patron and protector of the whole family of believers. In a special way, Joseph is presented to us on his feast day as the saint under whose powerful protection divine Providence has wished to place the persons and ministry of all who are called to be “fathers” and “guardians” among the Christian people.” (St. John Paul II, Homily, March 19, 2001)

How to Make a Good Confession

If you haven’t gone to confession in a while, Lent is the perfect time to reconcile yourself with God and the Church. Most parishes have communal penance services with prayers and Scripture readings, followed by the opportunity for individual confession (a necessity for absolution of mortal sins). Or you can also make a private appointment with a priest.

Preparation for confession should include an examination of conscience, which means you think back on sins you have committed since your last confession.

What happens during confession depends on the priest and the person. Most people still start with the formula: “Bless me, Father, for I have sinned. It has been (state the number of months or years) since my last confession.”

If you can’t remember the words or you don’t recall how long it’s been, don’t worry. Just tell the priest it’s been a long time, and he will guide you through the process.

What you will experience is the healing gift of God’s love, the chance to start over with a clean conscience, and an overwhelming sense of gratitude.

Examination of Conscience

Recall your sins. Calmly and honestly ask your self what you have done with full knowledge and full consent against God and the Church’s commandments.

Do I pray to God every day? Have I thanked God for His gifts to me?

Did I put my faith in danger through reading material that is hostile to Catholic teachings? Have I been involved in non-Catholic sects? Did I engage in superstitious practices, such as palm reading or fortune telling?

Did I take the name of God in vain? Did I curse, or take a false oath?

Did I miss Mass on Sundays or holy days of obligation through my own fault? Am I attentive at Mass? Did I fast and abstain on the prescribed days?

Did I disobey my parents or lawful superiors in important matters?

Did I hate or quarrel with any one, or desire revenge? Did I refuse to forgive? Was I disrespectful?

Did I get drunk? Did I take illicit drugs? Did I consent to, recommend, advise, or actively take part in an abortion?

Did I willfully look at indecent pictures, watch immoral movies, or read immoral books or magazines? Did I engage in impure jokes or conversations? Did I willfully entertain impure thoughts or commit impure acts, alone or with others? Did I use artificial means to prevent conception?

Did I steal or damage another’s property? Have I been honest in my business relations?

Did I tell lies? Did I sin by gossiping about others? Did I judge others rashly in serious matters?

Have I envied other people?
